

Candace S. Cummings
Vice President – Administration, General Counsel and Secretary

Candace S. Cummings is Vice President - Administration, General Counsel and Secretary of VF Corporation. Cummings directs VF's legal matters, including securities law, mergers and acquisitions, general corporate law and corporate governance, intellectual property law and litigation, as well as Human Resources.

Cummings joined VF in 1995. Previously, she was a senior partner at the international law firm of Dechert Price & Rhoads, headquartered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Her principal concentrations at the firm were corporate and securities law. Cummings was admitted to the Pennsylvania bar in 1972 and the North Carolina bar in 2000.

She received her B.A. from Middlebury College and J.D. from the University of Virginia.

Cummings currently serves on the board of directors of WRAP (Worldwide Responsible Accredited Production), an independent, non-profit organization dedicated to the certification of ethical manufacturing throughout the world.